

IASP Australasian Research Workshop 2024 Programme

Day 1   Thursday 15 February
09:15–09:30	Registration
09:30–10:30	Pōwhiri/Whakawhanaunga (Welcome)(Matua Sonny Niha)
10:30–11:00	Morning Tea
Theme 1: He Awa Whiria (Braided Rivers) What are the key elements of a braided rivers approach – what and how and why?
11:00–11:05	Jo Robinson IASP Welcome Sarah Hetrick & Tania Cargo Housekeeping
11:05–12:30	SPEAKERS	PANEL
	Sarah Hetrick and Tania Cargo Co-leading research within a He Awa Whiria (Braided Rivers) approach	Tania Papalii Lynne Russell Witi Ashby Suzy Taylor  Panel Chair – Tania Cargo
	Lynne Russell and Witi Ashby Whakatere ngā awa o ngā mate: (Navigating Māori suicide)
12:30–13:30	Lunch
Theme 2: Big Data in Suicide Prevention Why is big data important and how do we use it to address inequity?
13:30–15:00	Matthew Spittal From big data to artificial intelligence: An overview of the opportunities, limitations and risks of taking a data driven approach to suicide prevention.	Matthew Spittal Trine Madsen Sarah Fortune Alayne Mikaere–Hall Sughayshinie Samba Sibam Katrina Witt  Panel Chair – Sarah Hetrick
	Sarah Fortune, Tania Papalii and Alayne Mikaere– Hall ‘Te Mauri The Lifeforce – Rangatahi Suicide Report’
15:00–15:15	Coffee Break
15:15–16:15	Ember ECR Lightning Presentations Introduction: Daryl Bishop – 7 ECR presentations (7 x 5 mins) + 20 mins for discussion
END DAY
16:30 Onwards	Optional Dinner & Drinks (Trocadero, 380 Queen St, City) Delegates are responsible for their own costs

Event proudly sponsored by

Day 2   Friday 16 February
Theme 3: Utilising collaborative research design in suicide prevention What are structural barriers to collaborative research design and what are solutions to address them?
09:30–11:00	SPEAKERS	PANEL
	Katie McGill Bridging the gap: research in routine care setting	Tania Cargo Katie McGill Linda Bowden Bree Soloman  Panel Chair – Vartika Sharma
	Linda Bowden Co-design in the real world
11:00–11:30	Morning Tea
11:30–12:30	SPA ECR Lightning Presentations Introduction: Sharon Bower – 7 ECR presentations (7 x 5 mins) + 20 mins for discussion
12:30–13:30	Lunch
Theme 4: What I wish my ECR self knew... How to have a long and sustainable career in research?
13:30–15:00	Jane Pirkis Planning, getting funding, and completing research in suicide prevention: tips for everyone	Keith Hawton Jane Pirkis Terryann Clark Michelle Tye  Panel Chair – Linda Bowden
	Keith Hawton Establishing self-harm sentinel surveillance
Closing remarks from Sarah Hetrick and Tania Cargo ECR Award Presentation with Sarah Fortune & Michelle Tye
END DAY		