Anti-Discrimination, Harassment and Sexual Harassment Policy

IASP is an equal opportunity organization and will not allow discrimination based upon age, ethnicity, ancestry, gender identity, national origin, disability, race, size, religion, sexual orientation, marital status or socioeconomic background.

IASP does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, colour, religion, gender identity, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, marital status or socioeconomic background, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, the appointment to and termination from its Board of Directors, hiring and firing of personnel or contractors, selection of volunteers, selection of vendors, and providing of services.

IASP is an equal opportunity organization. We shall not discriminate and will not discriminate in recruitment, Board membership, advertisements for personnel, compensation, termination, upgrading, promotions, and other conditions of involvement in IASP against any person or job applicant on the basis of race, colour, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic background, or for any other discriminatory reason.

IASP strives to create and maintain an environment in which people are treated with dignity, decency and respect. The environment should be characterized by mutual trust and the absence of intimidation, oppression and exploitation. IASP will not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment of any kind.

All members, Executive Committee, Central Office team and other subgroup members, regardless of their positions, are covered by and are expected to comply with this policy and to take appropriate measures to ensure that prohibited conduct does not occur. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any member, Executive Committee member, Central Office team member and other subgroup members, who violates this policy. Based on the seriousness of the offense, disciplinary action may include verbal or written reprimand, suspension, or termination of involvement with IASP.

Discrimination

It is a violation of IASP's policy to discriminate in the provision of recruitment opportunities, benefits or privileges; to create discriminatory work conditions; or to use discriminatory evaluative standards with personnel if the basis of that discriminatory treatment is, in whole or in part, the person's race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information or marital status.
Discrimination in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary measures up to and including termination of involvement with IASP.

Harassment

IASP prohibits harassment of any kind, including sexual harassment, and will take appropriate and immediate action in response to complaints or knowledge of violations of this policy. For purposes of this policy, harassment is any verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate or coerce a member, Executive Committee member, Central Office member, subgroup member, delegate, contractor or any person working for or involved in the organisation.

The following examples of harassment are intended to be guidelines and are not exclusive when determining whether there has been a violation of this policy:

- Verbal harassment includes comments that are offensive or unwelcome regarding a person's national origin, race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, appearance, disability, gender identity or expression, marital status or other protected status, including epithets, slurs and negative stereotyping.

- Nonverbal harassment includes distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material that ridicules, denigrates, insults, belittles or shows hostility, aversion or disrespect toward an individual or group because of national origin, race, color, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, pregnancy, appearance, disability, sexual identity, marital status or other protected status.

Sexual harassment

Sexual harassment is defined as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions or such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or otherwise offensive working environment."

Sexual harassment occurs when unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature:

- Is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of recruitment/engagement.
- Is used as a basis for an recruitment/engagement decision.
- Unreasonably interferes with person's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or otherwise offensive environment.

Sexual harassment may take different forms. The following examples of sexual harassment are intended to be guidelines and are not exclusive when determining whether there has been a violation of this policy:
• Verbal sexual harassment includes innuendoes, suggestive comments, jokes of a sexual nature, sexual propositions, lewd remarks and threats; requests for any type of sexual favor (this includes repeated, unwelcome requests for dates); and verbal abuse or "kidding" that is oriented toward a prohibitive form of harassment, including that which is sexual in nature and unwelcome.

• Nonverbal sexual harassment includes the distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material, including calendars, posters and cartoons that are sexually suggestive or show hostility toward an individual or group because of sex; suggestive or insulting sounds; leering; staring; whistling; obscene gestures; content in letters, notes, facsimiles, e-mails, photos, text messages, tweets and Internet postings; or other forms of communication that are sexual in nature and offensive.

• Physical sexual harassment includes unwelcome, unwanted physical contact, including touching, tickling, pinching, patting, brushing up against, hugging, cornering, kissing, fondling, and forced sexual intercourse or assault.

Courteous, mutually respectful, pleasant, noncoercive interactions between employees that are appropriate in the workplace and acceptable to and welcomed by both parties are not considered to be harassment, including sexual harassment.
